Amman, Jordan

6 - 7 May 2018

Venue

Association of Arab Universities

Amman, Jordan

Summary

The AArU is pleased to welcome British-based employment training experts, The Graduate Gateway, to Amman to deliver their international workshop showcasing some of the new Essential Professional Skills that are becoming the new standard for university students around the world preparing to apply for their first jobs.

The training has the power to transform the potential of students from all subject areas to find work, as it develops the skills and experience most valued by graduate employers.

The Graduate Gateway programme has been designed with the valuable input of professionals from leading international companies from engineering, aviation, energy, law, marketing, digital gaming, banking and financial services.

The workshop in Amman will involve a highly practical challenge for participants who will apply The Graduate Gateway training ethos of 'Learn-by-Doing'.

Participants will work closely with our team and gain a perfect insight into how much learning can take place in just two days. The workshop includes training on developing entrepreneurship at universities.

Internationalization:-

The workshop will begin with a special session providing new practical guidance from the British-based educational consultancy, HEMS International, for increasing World University Ranking points in the area of Internationalisation.
